How long will the video be?

At Captured by Bec, I don't just deliver a quick edit of what I think are the best shots. I carefully craft each moment to tell the full story of your big day, from the smallest details to the most unforgettable memories. Every frame is thoughtfully curated to reflect the essence of your celebration, creating a timeless narrative that you'll cherish forever.

Your story is brought to life through carefully edited footage set to your chosen music, with the real emotion of your ceremony and speeches captured through live sound.

Relax: Soak in every second of your wedding day, knowing I'll be there to preserve not just the big moments, but the quiet, fleeting ones you might otherwise miss.
